SIX MURDERERS FOUND GUILTY.

VERDICT OF MURDER IN THE FIRST DEGREE IN THE RABER TRIAL.

LEBANON, Penn., April 24.—The trial of Charles Drews, Frank Stichler, George Zohman, Henry Wise, Josiah Hummel, and Israel Brandt, who were indicted for the drowning of Joseph Raber, in Indiantown Gap, last December, has just closed. The four last-mentioned of the accused men held insurance on the life of the old man Raber to the extent of $9,000. They employed Drews and Stichler to drown Raber, for which they were to receive $1,500. The prisoners are all poor, and of the grossest ignorance. The policy-holders could not keep up the premiums, and so concerted several schemes for ending Raber's life. The jury, after five hours' deliberation, brought in a verdict of guilty in the first degree. An arrest of judgment was moved by the prisoner's counsel for a new trial.
